Hibiscus coccineus

Star of Texas

DI ANT DECCDIDIONI

GARDEN

PLANT DESCRIPTION
Plant Type:	Shrubby Herbaceous Perennial
Height / Width:	7 ft. H x 3 ft. W
Plant Form:	Clump-forming
Flower / Fruit:	Brilliant crimson red, 6-8 in. wide, from summer to fall
Leaf Color, Size:	Handsome, deep green palm-ate leaves, 5-6 in. wide
Native To:	Southeastern U.S.
GROWING REC	QUIREMENTS
Sunset Zones:	1-10, 14-24
Soil:	Moist
Water:	Regular to wet
Sun:	Full sun
Care and Pruning:	Comes up in late spring, dies back in winter. Cut to ground after frost. First growth slow in spring
GARDEN USE	Eye-catching specimen with a lush tropical appeal for wet areas, ponds, back of irrigated flower or shrub borders. Attracts butterflies.
BOTANICAL GARDEN	East Entry Garden