

Libertia grandiflora

New Zealand Iris

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Plant Type:	Perennial
Height / Width:	2 ft. H x 1.5 ft. W
Plant Form:	Clump
Flower / Fruit:	Branching clusters of ¾-in. white flowers on 2½-ft. stems from late spring to midsummer
Leaf Color, Size:	Bright green swordlike leaves in fans
Native To:	New Zealand

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

Sunset Zones:	8, 9, 14-24
Soil:	Moderately fertile, humus-rich, well-drained
Water:	Regular
Sun:	Light shade to full shade
Care and Pruning:	Cut back seedheads and dead leaves as needed. Can be divided

GARDEN USE

Beds and borders, gravel beds
Beautiful flower arrangements

BOTANICAL GARDEN

Pacific Rim Garden