

Quercus chrysolepis

Canyon Live Oak

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Plant Type:	Deciduous Tree
Height / Width:	20-60 ft. H x 20-60 ft. W
Plant Form:	Handsome, round-headed spreading tree. Bark is checked and gray with age.
Flower / Fruit:	Oblong, sharp-tipped acorns among the largest (to 2"); enclosed by one to two-thirds in a turban-like cap covered with golden fuzz.
Leaf Color, Size:	Oval 1-2" leaves may be smooth edged or spiny; medium green above, with thin felting of golden hairs on undersides.
Native To:	Southwestern Oregon to Baja California, east into Arizona

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

Sunset Zones:	3-11, 14-24
Soil:	Dry.
Water:	Drought-tolerant when established.
Sun:	Full sun
Care and Pruning:	A low maintenance, long-lived tree.

GARDEN USE Very attractive, drought tolerant tree. Most adaptable to varying conditions.