

Stachys byzantina 'Countess Helen von Stein' Lamb's Ears

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Plant Type:	Semi-evergreen Perennial
Height / Width:	1.5 ft. H x spreading
Plant Form:	Spreading, dense
Flower / Fruit:	Short stalks of deep lavender pink flowers in whorled clusters, to 12 in. in summer
Leaf Color, Size:	Large, felty, gray-green leaves
Native To:	Caucasus, Iran

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

Sunset Zones:	1-24
Soil:	Well-drained
Water:	Moderate to Low
Sun:	Full sun to light shade
Care and Pruning:	Shear bloom stalks to ground to invigorate plants. Clean out any dead leaves.

GARDEN USE

Grown for foliage to edge paths, flower beds, as ground-cover, contrast w/darker colors

BOTANICAL GARDEN

Mediterranean and Display