

Buddleja davidii 'White Harlequin' Variegated Butterfly Bush

PLANT DESCRIPTION

Plant Type:	Semi-evergreen Shrub
Height / Width:	5-10 ft. H x 4-8 ft. W
Plant Form:	Long, arching branches
Flower / Fruit:	Fragrant, small white flowers with yellow throats in trusses, in mid-summer
Leaf Color, Size:	Green, tapering, 4-12 in. long, with cream colored margins
Native To:	Asia

GROWING REQUIREMENTS

Sunset Zones:	2-24
Soil:	Tolerates most soils, needs good drainage
Water:	Moderate to dry
Sun:	Sun
Care and Pruning:	Hard prune in early spring before growth begins Deadhead to prolong bloom Can be pruned into a hedge

GARDEN USE

Attractive foliage
Attractive to butterflies